3. Benefits

3.1 Death Benefit

3.1.1 If the Insured Member dies while he is covered under this Insurance Certificate, We will pay the Sum Assured for Death Benefit as shown in the Insurance Certificate Schedule of this Insurance Certificate, less any amount to be reduced as a result of an earlier admission of claim for accelerated benefits, to the person entitled through the Insured Member.

3.1.2 Exclusion of Death Benefit

- (a) We shall not pay the Death Benefit under this Insurance Certificate if the death of the Insured Member is directly or indirectly caused by or in connection with the Insured Member's suicide.

3.1.3 Conditions for Paying Death Benefit

- (a) Written notice of death of the Insured Member, together with the proof of claim, the relevant claim documents and information that We request to evaluate the claim as well as to establish the cause and circumstances of death of the Insured Member (collectively referred to as "Death Claim Notice") must be served on Us through the facility made available by Us through any affiliates of Prudential plc (UK) or directly from Us, or given to our Head Office as soon as possible within 6 months of the date of death. They shall only be treated as served when We actually received them.
- (b) If the Death Claim Notice fails to reach Us within the prescribed period, it shall not mean the claim is invalid if it can be shown that it was not reasonably possible to give the Death Claim Notice within the prescribed period and that the Death Claim notice was given as soon as was reasonably possible.
- (c) We are not liable for any expenses incurred to obtain the Death Claim Notice.
- (d) We can refuse to pay the Death Benefit under this Insurance Certificate if the above conditions are not met.

3.2 Total and Permanent Disability (TPD) Benefit

3.2.1 If the Insured Member suffers from Total and Permanent Disability ("TPD") while the Insured Member is covered under this Insurance Certificate, We will pay the Total and Permanent Disability (TPD) Benefit, of which the Total and Permanent Disability (TPD) Benefit will be the Sum Assured for Total and Permanent Disability (TPD) Benefit as shown in the Insurance Certificate Schedule of this Insurance Certificate.

3.2.2 Total and Permanent Disability (TPD) Benefit is a benefit that provides coverage for TPD of the Insured Member, of which its Sum Assured as shown in the Insurance Certificate Schedule of the Insured Member's Insurance Certificate will reduce the amount payable for death.

3.2.3 Exclusions of Total and Permanent Disability (TPD) Benefit

- (a) We shall not pay any Total and Permanent Disability (TPD) Benefit under this Insurance Certificate if the TPD of the Insured Member occurs due to any condition, illness, injury or event which is directly or indirectly caused by, or accelerated by, or in connection with:
 - (i) any attempted suicide or self-inflicted injury whether attempted/inflicted while sane or insane;

- (ii) any travelling in an aircraft other than as a pilot or member of the crew or a fare-paying passenger in a commercial aircraft licensed for passenger service on scheduled flights over established routes only;

3.2.4 Conditions for Paying Total and Permanent Disability (TPD) Benefit

- (a) Written notice of any claim for this Total and Permanent Disability (TPD) Benefit, together with the proof of claim, the relevant claim documents and information that We request to evaluate the claim as well as to establish the cause and circumstances of the Insured Member's TPD condition (collectively referred to as "TPD Claim Notice") must be served on Us through the facility made available by Us through any affiliates of Prudential plc (UK) or directly from Us, or given to Our Head Office as soon as possible within 6 months of the date of event giving rise to the claim while the Insured Member is alive. They shall only be treated as served when We actually received them.
- (b) If the TPD Claim Notice fails to reach Us within the prescribed period, it shall not mean the claim is invalid if it can be shown that it was not reasonably possible to give the TPD Claim Notice within the prescribed period and that the TPD Claim notice was given as soon as was reasonably possible.
- (c) After submitting the TPD Claim Notice, the Insured Member must agree to a medical examination carried out by a Doctor We have appointed as may be required. In order to assess the claim, the Insured Member may be subject to more than one medical examination.
- (d) If the Insured Member suffers from TPD, We shall be entitled to request for information to evaluate the claim and as well as to establish the cause and circumstances of the Insured Member. Unless We notify the Insured Member otherwise, We are not liable for any costs involved in this.
- (e) We can refuse to pay the Total and Permanent Disability (TPD) Benefit if the above conditions are not met.

4. Termination

- 4.1 The insurance coverage in this Insurance Certificate, shall automatically terminate on the earliest of the following:
 - (a) the date the insurance coverage of the Insured Member is cancelled, voided or terminated;
 - (b) upon payment of Surrender Value under the Insured Member's Insurance Certificate;
 - (c) on the last day of the Coverage Period of the Insured Member's Insurance Certificate;
 - (d) the date on which the Insured Member dies; or
 - (e) when there is no amount payable for Death Benefit under this Insurance Certificate.

5. Misrepresentation / Fraud

- 5.1 If the Insured Member's answer or statement or information provided before this Insurance Certificate was entered into, varied or renewed is found to be false or misleading, or if the Insured Member has failed to disclose information as required, We have the right to void the insurance coverage of the Insured Member or exercise any of the rights available to Us in Schedule 9 of the Financial Services Act 2013 or any other law that replaces this Act. In this regard, any refund made shall be paid to the Insured Member.
- 5.2 If any information given to support any benefits or claim made is fraudulent or exaggerated, or any false declaration was made in support of such claim, We can terminate the insurance coverage of the Insured Member.

6. Changes and Notifications

- 6.1 Notifications

- 6.1.1 All notices must be in writing and shall be treated as served on the Insured Member if delivered or sent to or left at the Insured Member's latest correspondence address or any other address the Master Policyholder or the Insured Member gives Us in writing. Any notice sent by post shall be treated as received 3 days after it is posted.
- 6.1.2 We may give the Insured Member notice by fax, e-mail, text message, or electronic means. We may also give the Insured Member notice by any other method if We feel the circumstances are appropriate after considering the market development on such method. Any notice sent by fax shall be treated as written notice and served when We get confirmation of the transmission. If notice is sent by e-mail or text message or electronic means or any other method, it shall be treated as written notice and served on the next business day after sending.
- 6.1.3 All requests and/or notices and/or claims must be served on Us in writing through the facility made available by Us through any affiliates of Prudential plc (UK) or directly from Us. They shall only be treated as served when We actually received them.

6.2 Changes to the Insurance Certificate

- 6.2.1 We can change any provisions in this Insurance Certificate by giving the Insured Member notice for any of the following reasons:
- (a) if in view of any laws, regulations, rules, orders, directives, requirements, standards, guidelines and code of practice by any governmental statutory or regulatory body or association, We think it is necessary to make such changes;
 - (b) to respond to changes in the way this Insurance Certificate is managed or administered, with proper regard to the need to treat Master Policyholder (or the Insured Member when required under the law) fairly;
 - (c) to respond to changes in technology or general practice in the insurance industry; or
 - (d) to correct errors, if it is reasonable to do so.

7. Surrendering the Insurance Certificate

- 7.1 The Insured Member can surrender this Insurance Certificate at any time through the facility made available by Us through any affiliates of Prudential plc (UK) or directly from Us.
- 7.2 Upon surrender of this Insurance Certificate, We shall pay the Surrender Value of this Insurance Certificate.

8. Interpretation

- 8.1 This Insurance Certificate shall be interpreted and governed by the laws of Malaysia.
- 8.2 In this Insurance Certificate, unless We say something else or unless it should in the circumstances be understood differently:
- (a) the headings are inserted for convenience only and shall not affect the interpretation of this Insurance Certificate;
 - (b) the words including the singular shall include the plural and vice-versa; and
 - (c) a masculine personal pronoun as used herein includes the feminine, whenever the context requires.
- 8.3 If any provision or part of a provision of this Insurance Certificate is invalid or unenforceable under the law, the validity and enforceability of the remaining provisions are not affected. The affected provision or part of the provision is deemed to be severed.

9. Legal Proceedings

- 9.1 No action in law or in equity shall be brought to recover on this Insurance Certificate before the expiration of 60 days after the written proof of claim has been submitted to Us in line with the requirements set out in this Insurance Certificate.

10. Arbitration

- 10.1 If there is any disagreement about this Insurance Certificate, the matter shall be referred to an Arbitrator to be appointed in writing by the Master Policyholder and Us. If both parties cannot agree on one Arbitrator, We shall each appoint an Arbitrator, within 1 calendar month from being required to do so in writing by the other party. If the two Arbitrators cannot agree on a decision, an Umpire, who shall have been appointed in writing by the Arbitrators before the Arbitration, shall make the final decision. An award by Arbitration shall be a condition precedent to any right of action against Us. If We decide We are not liable for a claim and it is not taken to Arbitration within 12 months of Our decision, We shall assume the claim has been abandoned.

11. Anti-Money Laundering, Anti-Terrorism Financing and Proceeds of Unlawful Activities

11.1 Regardless of anything to the contrary contained in this Insurance Certificate, (i) if We learn or are notified that the Master Policyholder, the Insured Member, or any other beneficial owner named at the application stage, nominee, beneficiary, individual or entity that is associated with the Policy, is named on any Sanctions list, or is threatened with being added to any Sanctions list, or (ii) if We or any bank or other relevant third party could be found to be in breach of Sanctions obligations as a result of taking any action under the Policy, then We may:

- (a) terminate the Policy (or terminate the insurance coverage of the Insured Member) with immediate effect with or without prior notice to the Master Policyholder or the Insured Member, and/or
- (b) take any other action We may deem appropriate, including but not limited to notifying any relevant government authority, withholding any payments, freezing any monies paid to Us, and transferring any such payments or monies to any relevant government authorities.

11.2 We shall not be liable for any losses of whatever nature that the Master Policyholder, Insured Member or anyone else may incur as a result of Us taking action under this clause. This clause, and Our ability to claim for any losses that We may incur arising out of the operation of this clause, shall survive any termination of the Policy.

For the purpose of this clause, "Sanctions" mean:

restrictive measures imposed on targeted regimes, countries, governments, entities, individuals and industries by international bodies or governments in Malaysia or outside of Malaysia, including but not limited to the Office of Financial Sanctions Implementation HM Treasury, the United Nations, the European Union, the US Treasury Department's Office of Foreign Assets Control, and Ministry of Home Affairs in Malaysia.

Part B.1 – Cookie Policy [Applicable only if you are accessing our website]

Our website uses cookies to distinguish you from other users of our website. This helps us to provide you with a good experience when you use our website and also allows us to improve our website. A cookie is a small file of letters and numbers that we store on your browser or the hard drive of your computer. Cookies contain information that is stored on your computer's hard drive. You have the ability to accept or decline cookies by modifying the setting in your browser. If you would like to do this, please see the help menu of your browser.

We use the following types of cookies:

- Strictly necessary cookies. These are cookies that are required for the operation of our website. They include, for example, cookies that enable you to log into our secure website;
- Analytical/performance cookies. These allow us to recognise and count the number of visitors to our website and to see how visitors move around our website when they are using it. This helps us to improve the way our website works, for example, by ensuring that users are finding what they are looking for easily; and
- Functionality cookies. These are used to recognise you when you return to our website. This enables us to personalise our content for you, greet you by name and remember your preferences (for example, your choice of language or region).
- By continuing to use our website, you accept to the use of cookies as outlined above.

Part C - How we use your personal data and why

We may use the personal data you provide to us, together with other information, for the following purposes:

- to process your application;
- to administer and process insurance policies, insurance claims and medical, security and underwriting checks;
- to process payment instructions;
- to verify your eligibility for insurance, financial or wealth management products and services;
- to design and provide you with future insurance, financial and related products and services;
- to communicate with you;
- to comply with any regulatory or other legal requirements;
- to investigate and settle claims and detect and prevent fraud (whether or not relating to the policy issued in respect of your application);
- to carry out checks using agencies including but not limited to credit reference agencies and tracing companies;
- to provide customer services;
- to perform automated decision-making or profiling;
- to perform a policy review or needs analysis;
- use of new technologies to conduct research and statistical analysis;
- conferring an interest, benefit or privilege on you as our customer or potential customer where such interest, benefit or privilege may be provided by us or third parties;
- carrying out any activity in relation to or in connection with our duties as an insurer;
- data matching;
- exercising any right of subrogation; and
- to send you information on third party's services and/or products which may be of interest to you..

Who we share your personal data with and why

We may share your personal and your health information with our financial or health business partners and third party service providers (including without limitation insurers, takaful operators, lawyers, bankers, accountants, auditors, investment managers, scheme advisors, financial institutions, trustees (and other stakeholders) and processors of these third party service providers, other third party service providers who provide administrative, telecommunications, computer, payment, printing, redemption, IT service and platform providers or other services to us to enable us to operate our business), doctors, medical specialists, hospitals, clinics, our representatives or intermediaries, re-insurance companies and retakaful companies, medical bill review companies, claims investigations companies, organisations that consolidate claims and underwriting information for the insurance industry, fraud prevention organisations, industry associations and federations, databases or registers (and their operators) used by the insurance industry to analyse and check information provided against existing information, risk management and regulatory compliance solutions, regulators and government agencies, law enforcement agencies and the courts, Prudential Group, your joint policy or investment holder, professional advisors, researchers, credit reference agencies, debt collection agencies, financial/health institutions and partnerships for any of the purposes set out in this Part C. If you have a joint policy, the other person may receive your personal data too. If appropriate, we may also pass on your personal data to financial crime prevention agencies, any legal, regulatory or government bodies.

We may process your personal data in a country other than the one in which you reside. To the extent we transfer your personal data, we will use appropriate safeguards and comply with the laws of the country to which your personal data is transferred.

We keep your personal data for a set amount of time

Your personal data will be stored either for as long as you (or your joint policyholder) are our customer and for a period of seven years after the end of the customer relationship, or longer if required by law. There may be specific circumstances where it is necessary for us to retain your personal data for longer (such as when a dispute arises).

Part D - Reference checks

For certain products, we may use approved credit reference agencies, tracing companies, financial crime prevention agencies, risk management and regulatory compliance solutions or publicly available information, to help us to check your identity, as well as to prevent fraud and money laundering; this may include checks on your current or previous addresses. Results of these may be recorded for future reference.

These checks may also be carried out for any third parties including without limitation the life assured, nominee, trustee, beneficiary and assignee, that you provide personal data on. Should we ever lose contact with you, we may use these agencies to verify your address to help us get back in touch.

Any transfer of your personal data will always be done securely.

Part E – We may use your personal data to make automated decisions or profile you

We, PAMB, Prudential Group, our Business Partners, and our Marketing Partners may use your personal data to make automated decisions affecting you or to conduct other profiling (for example, marketing profiling).

Part F – Use of your sensitive personal data

For certain products or services, we'll need to process your sensitive personal data, such as information relating to health, genetics, biometric identifiers and sexual orientation. We will only process these types of sensitive personal data after having obtained your express consent for us to do so.

Part G – You're in control

When it comes to how we use your personal data, you have the right to:

- request a copy of your personal data (we have the right to charge a reasonable fee to complete this request);
- request that we correct anything that's wrong or outdated, or complete any incomplete personal data;
- limit or withdraw any part of your consent you have previously given for the processing of your personal data, however such action may prevent us from performing our obligations to you;
- limit or withdraw your consent to us using your personal data for direct marketing or other processing for the purposes set out in Part A; and
- complain to a data protection authority or another independent regulator about how we're using it.

If you currently reside in a EU jurisdiction, additional rights under the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) may apply. As such, you may:

- ask us to delete your personal data if it is no longer needed for the purposes set out in Part A or if there is no other legal basis for the processing;
- object to us using your personal data for direct marketing (including related profiling) or other processing based on legitimate interests;
- request to be provided a copy of your personal data in a structured and commonly used format in certain circumstances; and
- limit how we use your personal data or withdraw your consents (including automated decision making) you have given for the processing of your personal data.

If you want to exercise your rights, or would like an explanation about these rights, we've explained how you can get in touch in the Contact Us section.

If you do need to speak to us, please note that for the purpose of this Privacy Policy the data controller¹ of your personal data is PAMB. We may monitor or record calls or any other communication we have with you. This might be for training, for security, or to help us check for quality.

Part H – Acting on someone else's behalf?

When you give us personal data about another person (or persons), you should have been appointed and authorised by such person to act on their behalf. This includes obtaining their consent to:

- our processing of their personal data and sensitive personal data (as we've explained in Parts A - G above); and
- you getting any privacy policies or other related notices on their behalf.

If for any reason you are concerned as to whether you are permitted to provide us with the other person's information, please contact us at the email address below before sending us anything.

Part I – Direct marketing

We will send you information on products and services provided by us, the Prudential Group and carefully selected third parties.

Additionally, before providing your personal data to the third parties in Part C for direct marketing purposes, we may be required by law to obtain your express consent, and in such cases, only after having obtained such express consent, may we do so.

And if you change your mind, and/or you would like to opt-out of receiving direct marketing, it's easy to let us know. Just use one of the options in the Contact us section.

Contact us

If want to exercise your rights in Part G or if you require any other information about any other part of this Privacy Policy, you can contact us in several different ways.

You can contact PAMB's Customer Service Officer by telephone at 603-2771 0228 or by email at customer.mys@prudential.com.my.

Part J – Links to Third Party Websites

This website may contain links to third party websites. PAMB has no control over the content of such third party websites or the way that the operators of these websites deal with your personal data. You should review the privacy policies applicable to these third party websites to understand the ways in which these third parties may deal with your personal data.

Inconsistencies

In the event that there shall be any conflict or inconsistencies between the English and Bahasa Malaysia versions of this Privacy Policy, for the purposes of interpretation and construction, the English language version of this Privacy Policy shall prevail and be given effect to.
